SECTION I: CIVIL RULES OF PROCEDURE

LR77-TR79-1 Local Reassignment Rules for Civil Cases

- A. The Presiding Judge in Administrative District 19 shall administer reassignment of cases pursuant to T.R. 79(H). The Presiding Judge shall be selected from the sitting Judges and Magistrates in District 19. The initial Presiding Judge's term shall commence April 1, 2013, and terminate December 31, 2013. All subsequent terms shall be for a calendar year. Should the Presiding Judge leave the bench during the term, a successor Judge shall be selected to fulfill the balance of that term as well as the entirety of the next term. A Judge may not refuse to serve as Presiding Judge.
- B. During his or her term of service, the Presiding Judge shall maintain a record of the cause number of each case certified for reassignment and appointment of a special judge, the Judge who certified the case, and the Judge to whom the case was reassigned. The Presiding Judge shall submit a written semi-annual report to all District 19 Judges and Magistrates no more than ten (10) days following the end of the first and third quarters of each calendar year. The Presiding Judge may assign administrative duties to local court support staff to assist in fulfilling these responsibilities. The Presiding Judge shall transfer the records maintained during his or her term of service to the succeeding Presiding Judge.
- C. Pursuant to Trial Rule 79 (H), the District Judges and Magistrates shall certify to the Presiding Judge cases for reassignment and special judge appointment. The certification shall include a prepared order of appointment, as exhibited in Appendix A. When the Presiding Judge receives a certification requiring reassignment, the Presiding Judge shall appoint a Judge or Magistrate in the following manner:
1. At the beginning of each calendar year, the Presiding Judge shall create a list of all judicial officers in District 19. The District will follow the principle that each Judge or Magistrate will receive a new case for each case from which he or she has been removed – a one-off, one-on formula. Upon receiving a certification, the Presiding Judge shall assign the case to the first eligible Judge or Magistrate on the list.
 2. Sullivan County Judges shall not be eligible for assignment to cases from Putnam County. Putnam County Judges shall not be eligible for assignment to cases from Sullivan County.

The order of appointment shall be filed in the court where the case originated. The order of appointment shall constitute acceptance, and neither oath nor additional evidence of acceptance is required.

- D. A Senior Judge may elect to participate in District 19 special judge selection by submitting a written petition to the Presiding Judge no later than January 15 of any calendar year indicating that the Senior Judge wishes to participate during the year.
- E. When a Judge or Magistrate vacates the bench and is certified as a Senior Judge, that Judge shall retain jurisdiction of all previously existing Special Judge cases as provided by Administrative Rule 5. In the event the Judge or Magistrate vacates the bench and is not certified as a Senior Judge or is unavailable as indicated under Trial Rule 79 (L), then the successor Judge shall assume jurisdiction over all previous Special Judge cases of the vacating Judge or Magistrate. The county's judicial personnel shall first attempt to absorb conflicts of interest of the Successor Judge within the county without undue hardship.
- F. If no Judge or Magistrate is eligible to serve as a Special Judge, or if the Presiding Judge determines the selection of a Special Judge by the Indiana Supreme Court is warranted under the particular circumstances of a case, the Presiding Judge shall certify the case to the Indiana Supreme Court for appointment of a Special Judge.

(Amended effective May 1, 2013)

LR77-TR53.5-2 Motion for Continuances

The Presiding Judge of the Sullivan Circuit Court, and the Presiding Judge of the Sullivan Superior Court, now issue the following local Court Rule effective January 1, 2007, and thereafter until further order:

In order to expedite the setting of hearings and to eliminate the need for motions to continue hearings in all civil matters, the Courts hereby Order that all "Motions to Set Hearing" and "Motions to Continue" include dates at least sixty (60) days in the future that the party filing said motions will not be available. Also, when filing "Motions to Continue", the party requesting a continuance shall inform the Court whether the continuance is agreed to or objected to by the other party and include dates the opposing party is not available.

SECTION II: FAMILY LAW RULES

LR77-FL00-1 Statement of Contested Issues

The Presiding Judge of the Sullivan Circuit Court, and the Presiding Judge of the Sullivan Superior Court, now issue the following Orders and Local Court Rule, effective January 1, 2007, and thereafter until further order:

From this date forward, in all Contested Dissolution and Contested Post-Dissolution Modifications, or in any matter financially affecting the parties in the cause of action, the Court Orders the parties to file an exchange on or before five (5) days prior to the date of the Contested Hearing/Trial, a pleading entitled "STATEMENT OF CONTESTED ISSUES" which shall include the following information, as applicable:

1. An itemized statement of the parties' gross income from all sources per week.
2. An itemized statement of the parties' expenses per week.
3. A list of all properties, real and personal, that the parties possessed at the time of separation along with the parties' own value of each item.
4. A list of all properties, real and personal, that party is requesting the Court award to the Petitioner/Plaintiff, including the value of each item.
5. A list of all properties, real and personal, that the party is requesting the Court award to Respondent/Defendant, including the value of each item.
6. A list of all marital debts, including the balance of the debt, the name of the creditor, and the method of payment.
7. A list of the marital debts the party is requesting the Court Order the Petitioner/Plaintiff to assume, including the balance of the debt.
8. A list of the marital debts the party is requesting the Court Order the Respondent/Defendant to assume, including the balance of the debt.
9. If the parties have children, a statement regarding the parties' position on the issues of custody, support, and visitation. A proposed Child Support Worksheet should also be attached to the STATEMENT OF CONTESTED ISSUES.
10. Any other statement/explanation of property, income, and/or expenses that the party wishes for the Court to consider during the course of the Contested Hearing/Trial.

In the event that the parties or a party fails to file and exchange a STATEMENT OF CONTESTED ISSUES five (5) days prior to the date of the Contested Hearing/Trial, the Court in its discretion, will decide whether this cause shall be heard at the Contested Hearing/Trial scheduled or continued for not more than thirty (30) days or in accordance to the Judge's trial calendar.

This pleading must be verified by the party submitting the same.

LR77-FL00-2 Adoption of Indiana Parenting Time Guidelines

The Indiana Supreme Court having issued an Order Adopting Parenting Time Guidelines on December 22, 2000, and upon review of said Parenting Time Guidelines, we, the undersigned Judges of Sullivan County, hereby adopt the Indiana Parenting Time Guidelines as written to be utilized in dissolution proceedings involving children filed in the Sullivan Circuit and Superior Courts.

LR77-FL00-3 Alternative Dispute Resolution

The Presiding Judge of the Sullivan Circuit Court and the Presiding Judge of the Sullivan Superior Court hereby order that prior to conducting a contested Preliminary Hearing involving a custody dispute or a contested Final Hearing in Juvenile Paternity Actions and Dissolution Actions, the parties will be ordered to attend Alternative Dispute Resolution to be conducted by a certified Family Law Mediator either selected by the parties or appointed by the Court.

In the event a party to a Juvenile Paternity Action or Dissolution Action claims financial hardship, the Courts have established an Alternative Dispute Resolution Fund Plan where in the Clerk is accessing a Twenty Dollar ($20.00) fee in all dissolution and juvenile paternity actions to be utilized primarily for indigent or low-income litigants, whether represented by counsel or not, to assist them in paying for the costs of Alternative Dispute Resolution. The Courts have further established a Sliding Scale Fee Schedule that will be used to determine each litigant's contribution towards the costs of Alternative Dispute Resolution. Those parties having the financial resources will be responsible for directly paying for the costs of Alternative Dispute Resolution.

LR77-FL00-4

Parental Counseling

The Presiding Judge of the Sullivan Circuit Court and the Presiding Judge of the Sullivan Superior Court hereby order that prior to conducting a Final Hearing in a Dissolution Action in which the parties have children, the parties will be ordered to attend, complete, and report the completion of parental counseling. The class will be offered monthly to the parties at a minimal cost. In the alternative that a party to a Dissolution Action claims financial hardship, the Courts have established an Alternative Dispute Resolution Fund Plan where in the Clerk is accessing a Twenty Dollar ($20.00) fee in all dissolution and juvenile paternity actions to be utilized primarily for indigent or low-income litigants, whether represented by counsel or not, to assist them in paying for the costs of parental counseling. The Courts have further established a Sliding Scale Fee Schedule that will be used to determine each litigant’s contribution towards the costs of Alternative Dispute Resolution. Those parties having the financial resources will be responsible for directly paying for the costs of parental counseling.

- (6) The standard per page fee a Court Reporter may charge for the copy of a transcript shall be one-half (½) of the cost of the original transcript.
- (7) Pursuant to T.R. 74(A)(C) as a requirement of a Court Reporter's job to prepare transcripts, the Court Reporter shall be allowed to use all equipment, work space and supplies provided for all regular duties required of the Court Reporter. Reimbursement for use of equipment, work space and supplies shall be limited to private practice.
- (8) Each Court Reporter shall report, at least on an annual basis, all transcript fees received for preparation of either county indigent, state indigent, or private transcripts to the Indiana Supreme Court Division of State Court Administration. The reporting shall be made on forms prescribed by the Division of State Court Administration.

SECTION THREE: Private Practice

If a Court Reporter elects to engage in private practice through the recording of a deposition and/or preparing of a deposition transcript, the Court Reporter may elect to perform such private practice work outside of regular working hours and on private equipment and shall pay no fees to the County. However, if the Court Reporter elects to use court equipment for such purposes, the Court Reporter shall reimburse the court for the use of the equipment, work space, and supplies at the rate of five cents ($.05) per page.

Sullivan County Plan for Allocation of Judicial Resources
(Effective February 20, 2020)

SULLIVAN COUNTY PLAN FOR ALLOCATION OF JUDICIAL RESOURCES

- A. Sullivan Circuit Court: The Sullivan Circuit Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over the following Court dockets:
1. Juvenile Cases: Delinquency, Paternity, Chins
 2. Probate Cases: Estates, Guardianships, Adoptions
 3. Civil Commitments (Mental Health cases)
- B. Sullivan Superior Court: The Sullivan Superior Court shall exclusive jurisdiction over the following Court dockets:
1. Small Claims
 2. Felony (I.C. 9-30-5-3; 9-30-5-4; and 9-30-5-5) and all Misdemeanors
 3. Traffic Infractions
- C. CONCURRENT JURISDICTION: The Sullivan Circuit Court and the Sullivan Superior Court will each have jurisdiction over the following Court dockets:
1. Civil
 2. Criminal Felony
 3. Civil Venue cases from Vigo County
 4. Protective Orders
 5. Divorces and Legal Separations
- D. Random Case Assignment: Cases involving concurrent jurisdiction shall be assigned randomly by the Clerk of the Sullivan Circuit and Superior Courts. This shall be accomplished by utilizing JTS Case Tracking Software which randomly assigns cases on a 50:50 ratio between Sullivan Circuit Court and the Sullivan Superior Court. However, there are some instances in which random case assignment will not be conducted.

Those Exceptions are as follows:

1. Criminal Felony Case Assignment: If a criminal non-support of a dependent child case is filed and Sullivan Court has an pending case in which the child support obligation was either established or enforced, then the criminal non-support case shall be filed in the same Court in which the child support obligation was established or enforced. The Clerk of the Court will override the random case assignment process and assign the criminal non-support case to the appropriate Court.

2. Companion Civil Filings: In the event two or more civil causes are identified by the filing party as companion cases, arising from the same circumstances, with similar issues of fact and law, the Clerk will utilize random case assignment to assign a Court to the first cause. The Clerk of the courts will then override the random case assignment process and assign any companion cases the same Court.
 3. Subsequent Criminal Filings: The Circuit Court and the Superior Court state that the policy of the Courts is to have all criminal cases pending against an individual filed in the same Court. Therefore, when a criminal case is filed, the Prosecuting Attorney and the Clerk shall determine if the accused has additional criminal charges pending. When the new criminal charge is filed in the Court where the additional criminal charges are pending, the Clerk shall override the random case assignment and assign the new criminal charge to the appropriate Court.
- E. Transfer: The Judge of the Sullivan Circuit Court or the Sullivan Superior Court, by appropriate order entered in the Record of Judgments and Orders, may transfer and reassign any case to the other Court, subject to acceptance by the receiving Court.
- F. Refiling: When the filing party and/or the State of Indiana dismisses a case and chooses to refile that case, the case shall be reassigned to the Court from which the dismissal was taken.
