Fine Named NASUCA Vice President

Indiana Utility Consumer Counselor Bill Fine has been named as Vice President of the National Association of State Utility Consumer Advocates (NASUCA).

NASUCA is an association of 58 utility consumer advocate offices in 44 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, Barbados, and Jamaica. NASUCA's members include the Indiana Office of Utility Consumer Counselor (OUCC), which represents Indiana utility consumer interests before state and federal regulatory commissions and in the appellate courts.

Fine was appointed as Indiana's Utility Consumer Counselor by Gov. Eric J. Holcomb in January 2017 and reappointed in December 2020. He has served on NASUCA's Executive Committee since November 2018 and was elected twice as the association's treasurer.
